

ROGER RICKARD BIO

Roger is the guy organizations call when they need help with advocacy. As Founder of Voices in Advocacy®, Partner of Revent, and Author of 7 Actions of Highly Effective Advocates; Roger works with organizations by 'Supporting Causes Today. Developing Advocates Tomorrow.'

His education, experience and enthusiasm enlighten audiences on key issues that turn passion into action. Roger majored in Political Science at Pennsylvania State University and is still a proud Nittany Lion. He has been an advocate for citizen involvement since the age of 13. He was elected to public office as a young man, later served as a legislative staffer for the Pennsylvania State Legislature, and has worked on many local, regional and state campaigns as well as numerous Presidential campaigns.

His work spans a cross-section of local, regional, national and international organizations. In 2011, Roger authored The DMO Advocacy Toolkit for Destination Marketing Association International. In 2013, Voices in Advocacy® built a grassroots meetings industry advocacy platform for the Convention Industry Council called the CIC AdvocacyHub™.

He has served in numerous industry associations' leadership roles, is a recipient of several international industry awards, and is a member of Meeting Professional International's prestigious "Community of Honoree's".

In 2013, Smart Meetings Magazine did a cover story on Roger, entitled Passion & Purpose, Roger Rickard's Call to Action. Also in 2013, Successful Meetings Magazine named Roger one of the Six People Worth Watching in the Meetings Industry. In 2014, Meetings Focus Magazine named him to their inaugural list of Meetings Trendsetters.

Roger is recognized as an expert on advocacy engagement and grassroots activation. He serves as the government affairs faculty for a professional certified accreditation curriculum.

Casually known as the "Big Guy", Roger's exuberant personality makes for engaging presentations.
